Now in the Country People.

LAWYERS.

W. H. HARVEY, of Cincinnati (republican) October 8, 1884: "None of the country newspapers tried to sap the Jeffersons and had broadsides sold off for sale, old hats and dirty sheets bags."

Mr. LOGAN is laid up for repairs. He is Calico.

The Two Doves: "My dear Mr. Fisher—Blaine—My dear Will—Ahh."

Mr. Blaine's attention is again called to Ohio. The situation is again critical.

Oppressions have been seen in Fort Wayne this year, but the same year again.

Mr. Blaine spent two weeks in Ohio.

Result: A loss of nearly $8,000 over October 1884.

Most Maligned cities have been pulled down. Does Mr. Blaine want them printed?

"We'll meet you when the sun goes down," Democrats of Fort Wayne to Mr. Blaine.

To James G. Blaine, Columbus: "Fort Wayne is ours. The occasion is urgent." "Burn this."

The election of republicans is called to the attention of independent republicans in other columns.

"Give my compliments to Mr. Blaine and tell him I have no criminal practice,"—Brown reading.

Logan predicted a republican majority of 30,000 in Ohio. As a political prophet Mr. Logan is scarcely a success.

Parties. Republicans will follow in the wake of Mr. Blaine and the painted program will observe that it will be a lively contest.

It was said of Garfield that his power was no indication of his party. Such remarks are now out of fashion in republican circles.

Mr. Blaine has not two feelings west about the spot in the face of a West Virginian. He no doubt realizes that his party needs coring.

Logan predicted a republican majority in Ohio and West Virginia. Fort Wayne has kindly remitted its customary losses.

The new postmaster general is a distinguished republican and a great prophet. He prophesied in 1881: "Blaine will become a political titan."

Now would be a splendid time for the republicans to publish the Mulligan letter. Mr. Blaine has said that he wished everybody to read them. Why don't they comply with his request?

The Chicago Times says: "The republican candidate will visit Chicago this week, but the presence of several tattooed persons at the fine museums will naturally attract the curiosity to see him."

High protection is so much desired by workingmen and is of such incalculable benefit to them why is it we never hear of them sending committees or petitioning congress to advance the tariff rates?

This is Mr. Blaine's positively last appearance in Indiana on a vote-begging tour. He will never come again and all those who desire to look upon this great orator should now avail themselves of the opportunity.

These people will be much disengaged to know that there is a probability of Mr. Blaine being compelled to abandon his Indiana tour. It is stated that he has received a telegram from New York calling him to that state on "important business."

The Catholic Telegraph, of Cincinnati, and its allies required $800,000 and from $4,000 to $6,000 cut-throats from different states to receive the party of the ballot in this city, on last Tuesday, Oct. 16, according to the republican press of Ohio.

It would indeed be disgraceful if the young men of this nation should be informed by this slant that the people of the United States condone the offensive proved against James G. Blaine. The moral effect would be very depressing should they be told by his election that they can be, doubtful, bold, dangerous, bribe-givers and liars, and still not forfeit the public confidence.—Advertiser, Huntington.

Democrats of Indiana are now yearning and show no quarter.

The elements of Indiana give no appearance of being magnetized.

Gov. CLEVELAND never wrote a letter to which "butts" was attached.

Blaine's twenty years in congress will be followed by twenty years in senate.

The greeting to Mr. Blaine will be dubious tumultuous as a very warm ovation.

DANIEL McEWEN will tell of Blaine's profound love for foreigners in this city next Wednesday evening.

The people are asked to stay up. Gov. Cleveland votes for themselves and see if he has not befuddled labor.

Fair warning is given Mr. Blaine that the United States' deepest marshal Cleveland will not work in Indiana.

In all the Blaine bolters are digits sent to a paucity on the part of the people to swell the ranks of division.

Mr. Blaine will find that Cleveland and Hendricks have already been installed in the hearts of the democracy of Indiana.

Gov. CLEVELAND does not head a presidential campaign. He will, however, lead the grand march on the enemy on the fourth of November.

H. B. Chapman, the greatest dry goods merchant in New York, and herefore a leading republican, is now supporting Cleveland and Hendricks.

Cleveland attended to the duties of his office and asks the people to exercise their judgment. His course through the country bunging for ovation.

How THOMAS A. HENDERSON will speak in Chicago on the 23d inst., by invitation of the state leaders of the republican majority in Illinois.

Mr. Blaine only followed his former course in life leaving Ohio Tuesday morning.

It was not the first time he had the halo of the halo from his side.

Out of a list of 850 German papers in this country, 276 are supporting Cleveland and 82 are advocating Blaine. There are one hundred republicans of Cleveland who have signed an address to the state leaders of the republican majority in Illinois.

REPUBLICANS betray either premeditated or wilful ignorance when they assert that Gov. Cleveland has no public record. Let them read the history of New York under his administration and they will again be apprised of corruption than any man in the history of the state.
